FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

New Retail Gift Website

Phoenix, Arizona – June 15, 2011 – The launch of a new retail custom gift site featuring seasonal gifts just launched. While our first gift items will be released in late August 2011, hints to what the items will be, will be released online and via our twitter account www.twitter.com/greetingstogo.

Joe Macaluso, owner of greetings to go, “I wanted to create fun gift items that could be used to decorate your home not only during seasonal periods of the year, but all year”. The site name, greetings to go means that if you purchase an item as a gift for someone else you can add a custom gift card and have the item sent directly to the recipient. It’s a wonderful way to send that special someone a “greeting”.
